

Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Once upon a time there lived three bears and a little girl called Goldilocks. One day, Goldilocks went for a walk in the forest and found a house. She knocked, and when nobody answered, she decided to go inside. At the table, there were three bowls of porridge. Goldilocks was hungry. She tasted the porridge from the large bowl. "This porridge is too salty!" she said. She tasted the porridge from the medium bowl. "This porridge is too sweet!" she said. She tasted the porridge from the small bowl. "This is porridge is just right," she said and she ate it all up.

Goldilocks felt tired, so she walked into the living room and saw three chairs. She sat in the large chair to rest her feet. "This chair is too big!" she said. She sat in the medium chair. "This chair is too big, too!" she said. She sat in the small chair. "This chair is just right," she sighed. Just as Goldilocks settled down into the chair to rest, it broke into pieces!

By now, Goldilocks was very sleepy, so she went upstairs to the bedroom. She lay down on the large bed. "This bed is too hard!" she said. Then she lay on the medium bed. "This bed is too soft!" she said. So she lay down on the small bed. "This bed is just right," she said, and Goldilocks fell asleep.

As she was sleeping, The Three Bears came home. "Someone's been eating my porridge," growled Daddy Bear.

"Someone's been eating my porridge," said Mummy Bear.

"Someone's been eating my porridge and it's all gone!" cried Baby Bear.

"Someone's been sitting in my chair!" growled Daddy Bear.

"Someone's been sitting in my chair!" said Mummy Bear.

"Someone's been sitting in my chair and it's broken!" cried Baby Bear.

When they got upstairs to the bedroom, Daddy Bear growled, "Someone's been sleeping in my bed."

"Someone's been sleeping in my bed, too," said Mummy Bear.

"Someone's been sleeping in my bed, and she's still there!" cried Baby Bear.

Just then, Goldilocks woke up and saw The Three Bears. "Help!" she screamed. Goldilocks ran down the stairs and out of The Three Bears' house. And she never went back into the woods again.

The Haunted House

Jessica and Freya were taking Monty for a walk after school. Freya was holding his bright red lead. They walked down to the park. They stopped to play on the slide. After ten minutes, they threw Monty's ball for a while. Mr Chen shouted hello at them from the other side of the park as they played and they waved back.

"Time to go home," said Jessica.

"Oh, you're right," said Freya, and they set off for home.

As they walked down the road, they stopped to cross. They looked both ways and quickly went to the other side. They always crossed by the big tree because if they didn't, they had to walk near to Dark House. Even the name was scary. The weather was really nice. The sun was hot and bright, but when you looked at the house, you felt cold.

The house was big and had lots of windows with thick curtains so you couldn't see inside. The garden was full of big trees with lots of leaves. You could not see the house very well.

People told scary stories about Dark House. Some boys in the year above them at school said it had ghosts and the girls really didn't like ghosts! Freya's grandad told her that a witch lived there, casting spells all day long.

1. What colour was Monty's lead?

The Haunted House

As the girls looked at the house, a squirrel came down and ran towards Dark House and Monty was off. He ran away very quickly, pulling his lead out of Jessica's hand and jumping into the garden of Dark House.

“What do we do?” shouted Freya.

“We don't have a choice,” whispered Jessica, “we have to go and get him.”

They crossed the road, and carefully opened the gate of Dark House. It gave a loud creak, which made them both jump.

They walked quietly down the path, calling out for Monty but he didn't come. They didn't want the ghosts to hear them. They didn't want to be there. They just wanted to get Monty and get out as quickly as they could.

But they noticed something...the closer they got, the more normal the house looked. When it wasn't covered by the trees, it didn't look like a haunted house. It looked the same as all the others in the street and you could smell yummy food cooking.

“Are you missing someone?” said a kind voice.

Monty was being stroked by a smiling old lady sat in a comfy chair in the garden. Her name was Mrs Francis and she used to teach at Jessica and Freya's school. Dark House wasn't haunted and wasn't anything to be worried about after all.
